WILSON SPEAKS: ASKS THE PEOPLE TO STAND UNITED

UNDERSEA WAR BY GERMANY JUST STARTED

Plan Is to Crush British Commerce Even if the Neutrals Do Suffer.

STERN ACTION BY U.S.?

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
Washington, D. C., May 10.—[Special.]—Startling information that the Lusitania tragedy is only the inauguration of a new campaign of German submarine warfare on a scale hitherto unparalleled will have a direct bearing upon the adoption of measures by the administration to enforce protection of American and American property in the war zone.

Germany, according to its official representatives here, has completed and is now engaged in putting into service a large number of the most powerful seagoing submarines the world ever has seen.

It is stated that the remarkable activity in the submarine campaign in the last two weeks is due to the increased strength of the fleet of submarines.

Within a few months, if not weeks, say the German officials, the submarine forces will be strong enough to envelop completely the coast of the British Isles and to make an effective blockade which no incoming or outgoing vessel will be able to pass with impunity.

The German government gives assurances that no American passenger liner will be attacked, but reiterates its warning that American vessels aboard a British merchant vessel will court the fate of those who sailed upon the Lusitania.

STATE CONFERENCE SECRET.

This information, which already had come to the administration from another source, is reported to have been the subject of the conference between Secretary of State Bryan and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, when the latter called to express the regret of his government at the cost to America of the Lusitania tragedy. Neither Mr. Bryan nor the ambassador was willing to discuss what transpired at the conference.

The disclosure of the German plans compels the administration that unless Americans keep out of the war zone the killing of citizens of the United States is likely to continue indefinitely.

Such repetition of the slaughter of Americans would only aggravate the national resentment aroused by the Lusitania, Falaba, and Gulfstream cases and ultimately bring the relations of Germany to this country to a head.

BERLIN AGAIN DEFENDS SINKING OF LUSITANIA

BERLIN, May 10.—The following dispatch has been sent by the German foreign office to the German embassy at Washington:

"Please communicate the following to the state department: 'The German government desires to express its deepest sympathy at the loss of lives on board the Lusitania. The responsibility rests, however, with the British government, which through its plan of starving the civilian population of Germany has forced Germany to resort to retaliatory measures.'

"In spite of the German offer to stop the submarine war in case the starvation plan was given up, British merchant vessels are being generally armed with guns and have repeatedly tried to ram submarines, so that a previous search was impossible.

"They cannot, therefore, be treated as ordinary merchant vessels. A recent declaration made to the British parliament by the parliamentary secretary in answer to a question by Lord Charles Bessford said that at the present practically all British merchant vessels were armed and provided with hand grenades.

"Besides, it has been openly admitted by the English press that the Lusitania on previous voyages repeatedly carried large quantities of war material. On the present voyage the Lusitania carried 5,400 cases of ammunition, while the rest of the cargo also consisted chiefly of contraband.

"If England, after repeated official and unofficial warnings, considered herself able to declare that that boat ran no risk and thus light heartedly assumed responsibility for the human life on board a steamer which, owing to its armament and cargo, was liable to destruction, the German government, in spite of its heartfelt sympathy for the loss of American lives, cannot but regret that Americans felt more inclined to trust to English promises rather than to pay attention to the warnings from the German side. ARMED WOMAN A ROBBER.

Points Pistol at Man While He Hands Over Cash. Then She Takes Watch.

Two robbers, one of them a well-dressed woman with a revolver, held up Edward Grossman of 7098 Hillside avenue while at North Clark street and Southport avenue this morning. The woman threatened Grossman with a revolver while he handed over his purse containing $16, and then the woman took his watch from his vest pocket.

LINER CAPTAIN DEFENDS ACTS BEFORE JURY

Verdict Says Attack on Lusitania Was 'Wholesale Murder.'

NO WARNING GIVEN.

Kinsale, Ireland, May 10.—The liner Lusitania, which was sunk on Friday off Old Head of Kinsale by a submarine, was struck by only one torpedo, according to the testimony of Capt. Turner of the steamer given today at the coroner's inquest.

But this deadly missile found a vital spot and sent the liner to the bottom in less than twenty minutes, carrying with it over a thousand souls.

The evidence of Capt. Turner, which cleared up many other points concerning the disaster, and that of other members of the crew of the vessel, led the jury to bring in a verdict of "wholesale murder" against the German emperor and his government and the officers of the submarine directly responsible for the sinking of the ship.

Verdict Given by Jury.

The finding of the jury was as follows: "We find that the deceased met death from prolonged immersion and exhaustion in the sea, eight miles south-southwest of Old Head of Kinsale, Friday, May 7, 1915, owing to the sinking of the Lusitania by torpedoes fired by a German submarine.

"We find that this appalling crime was committed contrary to international law and the conventions of all civilized nations.

"We also charge the officers of said submarine and the emperor and government of Germany, under whose orders they acted, with the crime of wholesale murder before the tribunal of the civilized world.

"We desire to express sincere condolences and sympathy with the relatives of the deceased, the Cunard company, and the United States, many of whose citizens perished in this murderous attack on an unarmed liner."

Second Explosion Internal.

Meanwhile the cause for the heavy loss of life, the absence of any naval escort for the threatened vessel, and the suddenness with which it sank afford room for much speculation.

Capt. Turner, in declaring that one torpedo did all the damage, said the sudden explosion which the passengers heard was an internal one, and that the engines having been put out of commission, it was impossible to stop the Lusitania and permit of the boats being lowered properly.

This idea of an internal explosion is supported by naval experts, who point out that if the torpedo had exploded on contact the steamer should have only been disabled or had one or two of its compartments flooded. It is evident, however, that if the torpedo penetrated the hull and the charge of 420 pounds of explosive was detonated it would have created an effect similar to the explosion of a magazine within a ship.

There is little wonder, therefore, they say, that the Lusitania sank so rapidly or that so many persons were killed by the fumes of the explosion.

Testimony Given by Captain.

The testimony given by the captain was as follows: "You were aware that threats had been made that the ship would be torpedoed?"

"We were," the captain replied.

"Was the Lusitania armed?"

"No, sir."

"What precautions did you take?"

"We had all the boats swung when we came within the danger zone, between the passing of Fastnet and the time of the accident."

"I also gave orders to stop the ship," Capt. Turner continued, "but we could not. We found that the engines were out of commission. It was not safe to lower boats until the speed was off the vessel. As a matter of fact, there was a perceptible headway on the liner up to the time it went down."

"When the liner was struck it listed to

Nation United Behind Wilson, Feeling Shows

Many Leaders in All Walks of Life Say "We Trust in President."

ASK BETTER DEFENSE

The Lusitania and what the United States shall do about it constituted the main subject of discussion throughout the nation yesterday. The tenor of the bulk of responsible opinion was:

"Trust Wilson."

There was increasing evidence that the people, abhorring war, are a unit behind the president and will abide by whatever course he may determine to follow. It was the growing conviction that, while the present crisis is the most serious the country has faced in many years, a way will be found by the president and his advisers to meet the situation without an appeal to arms.

LOOK TO NATIONAL DEFENSES.

In various places there was a plea for the strengthening of the national defenses for future protection. The legislatures of Pennsylvania, Texas, and Tennessee considered resolutions on this line, and Gov. Hunt of Arizona found the lesson of preparedness in the crisis. As an exception to the general sentiment, "Trust Wilson," a New York editorial body called unanimously a resolution to commend the president "for his conservative stand."

The Washington Times demands the expulsion from the United States of Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former German colonial secretary.

Charles J. Bonaparte, secretary of the navy under President Roosevelt, declares the "United States must put up or shut up."

The Comment in Detail is Presented Below.

Likens Crisis to That of Ft. Sumter.

Boston, Mass., May 10.—The sinking of the Lusitania and the situation which President Wilson faces as the result was the subject of a formal address by Speaker Channing H. Cox in the house of representatives today.

"Not since Fort Sumter was fired upon has public sentiment in this country been so inflamed as it is today," he said.

"The United States stands face to face with a grave situation, more grave, perhaps, than we realize. It is the hour when men of all faiths and beliefs should stand as one man behind President Wilson and to our belief that he will cause an official inquiry to be made as to the responsibility for the slaughter of innocent Americans on the high seas, and that then he will perform his full duty."

"But, as men having influence in the old commonwealth, may I urge you to impress upon all your fellow men the danger that may arise from unbridled speech, and for the substitution of passion for reason."

No Watchful Waiting.

Plan of John W. Griggs.
New York, May 10.—[Special.]—John W. Griggs, a former governor of New Jersey and at one time attorney general of the United States, expressed himself today as follows:

"The time for watchful waiting has passed. No investigating committee is needed. The facts are known. Action is demanded. A demand should be made at once without waiting for the government to get the finding of any investigations or inquiries."

"I would hold Germany to account by proclaiming it an outlaw among the nations of the world. If the German government pleads that it was justified in this crime—which it will—it is then the duty of the United States to join with other neutral nations and cut it off from the rest of the world."

Charles J. Bonaparte Says "Put Up or Shut Up."

Baltimore, Md., May 10.—[Special.]—Charles J. Bonaparte says the gravity of the Lusitania case lies in its simplicity. He declares the United States "must either put up or shut up."

"Endurance at an End."

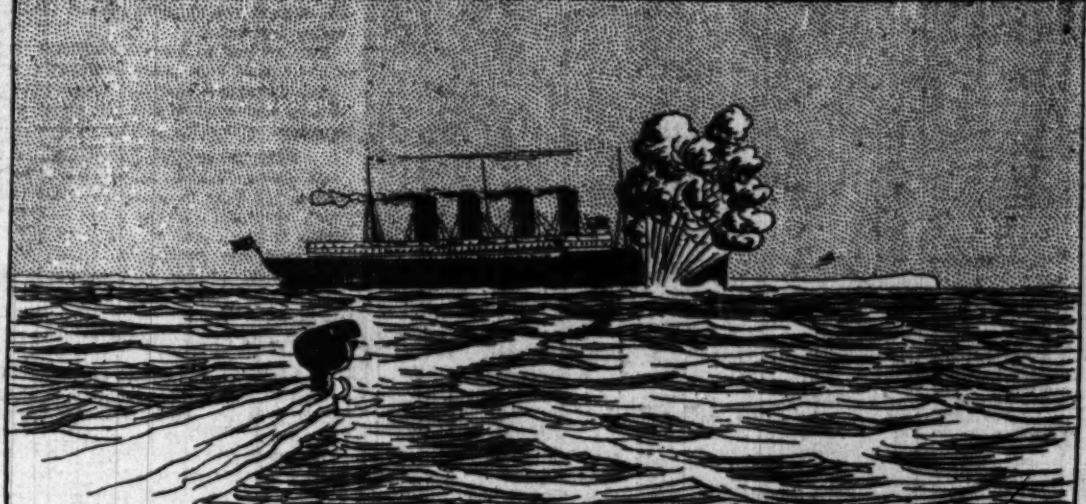

View of Dr. David J. Hill.
New York, May 10.—Dr. David Jayne Hill was asked for his opinion. Dr. Hill, who was ambassador to Germany from 1908 to 1911, expressed himself in writing as follows:

"When an appeal to the human conscience proves a vain expedient it is necessary to resort to other means to preserve the rights of citizens and the honor of the nation."

TURKS' LOSSES APPALLING IN DARDANELLES CAMPAIGN.

Allied Fleets and Land Forces Rain Shells on Sultan's Troops—Peninsula Striven with Dead.

LONDON, May 11, 2 a. m.—A Reuters dispatch from Athens quotes from a private letter dated May 9 regarding the operations in the Dardanelles.

"Ever since daylight on May 9, the bombardment of the Dardanelles has been incessant, causing appalling destruction of life and property."

"Constantinople papers publish interviews with wounded Turks describing the terrible artillery and machine gun fire, turning the earthworks into a veritable hell. Bayonet charges continued in the ravines and the peninsula is strewn with dead."

EXPECT U. S. TO END RELATIONS WITH GERMANY

London Times and Paris Figaro
Forecast Outcome of the Lusitania Disaster.

(By Cable to the Chicago Tribune.)
LONDON, May 10.—The Times, in discussing what the United States is likely to do to end its official relations with Germany, says that the attempt at direct action could have any material effect on the situation. The sinking of the Lusitania is a blow that they would not expect to see at present in the saving of civilization from the menace that confronts it.

"Millions of men are already under arms, arrayed against the Kaiser and his army of demoralized barbarians, and the German flag has been swept from the seas."

"The United States government is far less able to hold Germany to a strict accountability than ourselves were when the war began."

Breaks Down in Relations.
The editorial continued with the conjecture that President Wilson probably is doubting America can continue friendly relations with a power so sunk in moral and mental degradation. The Times is convinced that Great Britain's determination to avenge the wrongs of Germany's victims is intensified a thousandfold by the Lusitania incident.

The Morning Post refuses to accept as adequate the suggestion of the Times that it is impossible to convey every merchantman or to select one for protection, as it is notorious that many liner routes are protected by fast cruisers and destroyers and the danger points, such as those in the vicinity of Queenstown, are patrolled by submarines.

"The German threats against the Lusitania would surely have constituted a case for special protection, says the newspaper."

Greek Press Indignant.
A Reuters dispatch from Athens says that the torpedoing of the Lusitania has aroused profound indignation throughout Greece. The newspaper Hestia says:

"This German crime affords an appropriate commentary on the German accusation of cruelty against the Allies. It is a crime of barbarism and horror that is perpetrated by Russian troops in East Prussia. While undertaking to give lessons on the principles of humanity to others they themselves commit the greatest crime against humanity."

The Morning Post correspondent at Lisbon, Portugal, telegraphs:

"Universal outcry is raised here against the torpedoing of the Lusitania, which is described as piracy and a crime of barbarism and murder. The hope is expressed that America will not tamely acquiesce in the outrage."

French Paper Expects Break.
PARIS, May 10.—The Figaro thinks that the latest President Wilson can do to break off relations with Germany's diplomatic representatives. The American relatives of the Lusitania victims will never submit to President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan receiving the accomplices of assassins, the Figaro says.

"Will America accept an insulting offer of money indemnity for the lives of her citizens?" asks La Liberté.

Argentine Newspaper Protests.
BUENOS AIRES, May 10.—La Nacion publishes editorially an energetic protest against the torpedoing of the Lusitania without previous warning. It declares that the act was an outrage against the rights of neutrals and has aroused the conscience of humanity.

PACKER CHIEF DENIES MEAT SMUGGLING TO GERMANY.
Asserts Great Britain Has Held Up 100,000,000 Shipments in 27 Months for Five Months.

Statements circulated in New York yesterday that the Chicago packers had been shipping meat to Scandinavian ports and then, reshipping it by the smuggling route to Germany were denied last night by a high official of one of the packing firms who asked that his name be not used.

"We have shipped no meat to Scandinavian ports for almost three months," he said. "We now have twenty-two ships with cargo valued at $10,000,000 and consigned to neutral ports held up by the British government."

"Alfred Union, who has been in London several months, is still there trying to effect a settlement. We could not ship meat to the neutral ports there now as we wanted to. We are not doing it and have not for almost three months."

DEFENSE OF U. S. HELD TOO WEAK

National Security League
Urges Stronger Army
and Navy.

New York, May 10.—The National Security League, an organization formed to conduct a campaign for army and navy preparedness, of which Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain, is honorary president, issued today an open letter announcing the result of investigations by its committees and appealing for public support for a program for better national defenses.

The league finds, it is stated, that there are barely 20,000 mobile troops in continental United States, that they are so widely scattered as to make their rapid mobilization impossible, that this force is short of officers, ammunition and equipment, and has no organized reserve.

National Guard Too Weak.
The national guard is found to be below its paper strength in men, equipment, and efficiency. Coast defenses, the letter continues, are inadequate, and fortifications are insufficiently manned and without adequate organized reserves.

Investigation discloses, it is asserted, that the navy is neither adequate nor prepared for war, that it is inadequately manned, is short of ammunition, and has no organized reserve of trained men; that the submarine fleet exists chiefly on paper; that fast coast cruisers, battle cruisers, aeroplanes, mine layers, supply ships, and transports are lacking; and that target practice has been neglected or altogether omitted.

WARNS OF MILITARY POLICY.
New York, May 10.—The American League to Limit Armaments, through its secretary, Hollingsworth Wood, today issued a statement saying that the Lusitania is a fact which the American people to a realization of the results of a militaristic policy, where judgment has surrendered to a so-called military necessity which knows no law."

REFUSES TO TEACH GERMAN.
Prof. John F. Coar of Rochester University Refuses to Teach German as Result of Lusitania Disaster.

Rochester, N. Y., May 10.—John F. Coar, professor of German at the University of Rochester, refused this morning to teach his classes, explaining to them that under present circumstances he felt unable to do so because of the sinking of the Lusitania by a German undersea boat. Dr. Coar said he did not feel able to teach the ideals of Goethe and Schiller, so holy incompatible with present conditions.

Chicago Extends Official Sympathy.

HEARTFELT sympathy for the relatives of victims of the sinking of the Lusitania was expressed officially by Chicago yesterday.

With every citizen standing the city council unanimously passed resolutions presented by Mayor Thompson voicing the municipality's regret and sorrow over the catastrophe.

"I am sure," said the mayor, "that Chicago stands ready to manifest its sympathy in a more substantial manner if that is thought advisable later, but I want this message to the grieving ones sent at once."

City Clerk John Siman will send copies of the resolutions to the families of Chicagoans whose lives were lost in the disaster. The text follows:

Whereas, The people of the city of Chicago have been profoundly shocked by the news of the sinking of the steamship Lusitania, with the consequent loss of life, and

Whereas, Among those lost by this unfortunate casualty were a number of citizens and residents of Chicago, who were bent on peace, and who represented the highest type of American citizenship, and who have left behind them a large number of relatives and friends who mourn their untimely death, therefore be it

Resolved, That this body has learned with regret and sorrow of the death of those residents of the city who were unfortunate enough to sink with the ill-fated steamship Lusitania, which was lost in the Titanic struggle that has brought the whole civilized world to a crisis that is appalling and far-reaching beyond all precedent. Be it further

Resolved, That our most heartfelt sympathy is hereby tendered to the bereaved relatives of the innocent and unfortunate victims of the awful tragedy who formerly resided in the city of Chicago and who met their fate in the clash of warring powers with which they were not concerned.

If word is received that financial assistance is needed for the survivors of the Lusitania, Mayor Thompson probably will make a public appeal for funds without waiting for the next council meeting.

GERMANS TO PAY FOR DUTCH BOAT

Express Sincere Regret for Sinking of Katwyk; Call
It an Accident.

THE HAGUE, by London, May 10.—It is officially announced that the German government has expressed sincere regret for the sinking of the Dutch steamer Katwyk, which was blown up off North Hinder Lightship on April 14 by a German submarine. Germany explains that the act was in no wise intentional, and undertakes to make compensation.

"A communication from Berlin," says the official announcement, "states that the German government, after having compared the report of the Dutch crew of the vessel with that of the commander of one of the German submarines, has arrived at the conclusion that the torpedoing was done by a German submarine."

The commander of the submarine was of the opinion that he was dealing with an enemy ship, as the distinguishing marks used by neutrals had not been illuminated on the side which was struck by the torpedo.

British Steamer Sunk.
LONDON, May 10.—The British steamer Queen Wilhelmina of Hartlepool was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off Blyth on Saturday. Time was allowed the crew to take to the boats. The men were picked up by a patrol boat and landed at Shields.

FACULTY HEADS DECRY GERMANY; WARN OF HASTE

Midway Men Declare the U. S.
Must Insure Protection
to its Citizens.

University of Chicago professors were almost a unit in declaring yesterday that every kind of drastic action should be taken by the American government with Germany. All said the administration should be supported to the end in whatever course is pursued.

The faculty members thought the situation would not be aided by haste, and many advised withholding opinion until the facts are given from the German side. A majority were in favor of leaving everything to the administration.

Some of the Opinions.
The opinions of professors and others follow:
Prof. William E. Dodd.—The United States might act with Holland and Italy, the two greatest neutral nations interested in shipping. Public opinion in the three nations is similar. It is a positive necessity to see that there is no repetition of the catastrophe. The sinking was deliberate international murder.

Dean Alfred W. Small.—The situation is sufficiently acute to tolerate party lines. I would advise calling into consultation former Senator Elihu Root and former Secretary of State Knox, along with the ablest international lawyers and diplomats.

Prof. E. M. Hinton.—I believe there were technical grounds for the Germans to torpedo the Lusitania. This, however, was not sufficient justification for killing noncombatants. I do not think the United States has justification, in point of law, for doing anything. In point of morals it is justified in saying we will not stand for such a thing.

Prof. Andrew C. McLaughlin.—I have talked with a number of people, and all are in agreement. This is a case where we must rely on President Wilson and support him in his course.

Prof. Henri C. E. David, of the French Academy, who was invited to speak by President Wilson could be regarded as wrong. He must be supported.

GERMANS LOYAL TO U. S.
German-American citizens of Chicago while expressing sympathy with the fatherland, declared that in the event of war between the United States and Germany they would stand by their adopted country.

Judge Theodore Brentano.—I am a native American of German parentage. I can speak for the naturalized Germans when I say that they would be absolutely loyal to the United States, regret though they might that the fatherland and the land of their adoption had come to a clash of arms. They certainly would observe their oath of allegiance.

Attorney Harry Raben.—There can be no doubt of the loyalty of German-Americans to the United States in the event of war between the two countries. We have promised to fight for the stars and stripes and we would fight, even against the fatherland.

Herman Paspeke, president Chicago Mill and Lumber company, veteran of Franco-Prussian war, and wearer of the iron cross—War between Germany and the United States is unthinkable, but if war came the Germans in this country would fight for the United States. There would be no question of a clash of arms. They certainly would observe their oath of allegiance.

David M. Phares, member board of directors of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, said that the act of the Americans against the Germans would be greater and we Germans in America will suffer. It was an act of madness. Everybody is mad over this. I know why Germany did it. It was hatred, mad hatred for England. And she will keep it up, because England adopted a policy of starving Germany. I am willing to trust President Wilson.

German Pastor, Wilson Critic, Is Rebuked by His Colleagues

BY THE REV. W. B. HORTON.
The calling of President Wilson a "easy" aroused the indignation of the Methodist ministers at their meeting yesterday following the adoption of resolutions on the sinking of the Lusitania, characterizing the German submarine enterprise as an "inhuman" and "un-Christian" act.

The minister who applied the term to the president was the Rev. Frank Hart, pastor of the (German) Centennial Methodist Episcopal church.

The resolutions which precipitated the discussion were introduced by the Rev. Frank D. Sheela, district superintendent of the Aurora district.

The Pastors Idea of It.
They met:
Whereas the purpose of the sinking of the steamship Lusitania, whereby an unknown number of innocent American citizens lost their lives, has been every patriotic American's heart; therefore, be it

Resolved (1), That we, the Methodist Episcopal ministers meeting in Chicago, condemn in unambiguous words the inhuman torpedoing and non-Christian sinking of the said steamship Lusitania.

(2) That we express our perfect confidence in the determination of President Wilson to take our nation due to this disaster.

Immediately the Rev. Mr. Hart got the floor.
"I protest! I protest!" he repeated several times. "This is no time for resolutions. We ought not to take sides. We ought to stand by President Wilson and wait until he has expressed himself."

No Place for Dr. Hart.
The Rev. Mr. Hart then received an oratorical torpedo which a little later made him leave the room, exclaiming: "It is time for me to get out of here."

The torpedo was fired by the Rev. H. U. Werten, pastor of the Joyce Methodist Episcopal church.

"This brother who is urging us so vigorously to stand by President Wilson only two weeks ago said when Bishop W. F. Anderson urged us to pray for President Wilson, 'What is the use of praying for Wilson? He's a seer!'"

"The sinking of the Lusitania was a violation of international law. No law is international until it has the sanction of the nations. No single nation can declare a law international. The nations have not agreed that it is lawful to establish a war zone within which a ship may be fired on irrespective of who is on board."

"AD" ASKS LAW TO STOP WAR SUPPLIES ON LINERS.
Otto Reuter Says "Absolutely Neutral" Plan Is Same as Explosive Statute on Passenger Trains.

"I couldn't do half as much good if I gave $50,000 to charity," Otto Reuter told a "Tribune" reporter today, as he contemplated this advertisement, which had been placed in the Chicago papers:

In the name of humanity and to avoid the destruction of innocent lives, appeal to your statesmen and lawmakers for the passage of laws which will prohibit the carrying of contraband of war on passenger ships, thereby avoiding a repetition of the recent Lusitania disaster.

"The idea came to me at luncheon on Saturday," said Mr. Reuter, who is the sole proprietor of W. F. Kaiser & Co., who inserted the notice that they had been boycotted by the German national council of women owing to their having participated in peace discussions. It is said the council had refused to join the congress.

Needle Guild Sends Fund.
Washington, D. C., May 10.—The Needle Guild of America, which has just closed its annual conference in Philadelphia, today forwarded $1,000 to the Red Cross for relief of the Lusitania sufferers. The guild also sent $4,000 for relief work in Poland and $1,000 for work in Serbia.

THE HAGUE, May 10.—The German delegates to the recent international women's congress received notice on their return home that they had been boycotted by the German national council of women owing to their having participated in peace discussions. It is said the council had refused to join the congress.

Miss Julia Grace Wales of Madison, Wis., has been appointed secretary of the women's embassy which is proceeding to Scandinavia and Russia to intercede with the rulers of those countries to plead for peace.

WOMEN ATTACK GERMAN SHOPS; BREAK WINDOWS

Newcastle, England, Mob Demands Closing of Tonic Stores.

NEWCASTLE, England, May 10.—The sinking of the Lusitania and the manner in which the deed was detailed in German newspapers, aroused among feeling women their business in this city. A large crowd, composed mainly of women, paraded the streets today, smashing the windows in the establishments of the German pork butchers.

Liverpool Saloons Closed.
LIVERPOOL, May 10.—The municipal authorities ordered that all saloons be closed at a 5 o'clock tonight in consequence of the anti-German riots here yesterday. Some of the persons arrested for participating in the outbreaks were discharged and others were remanded for a week.

TROOPS IN VICTORIA, B. C.
Victoria, B. C., May 10.—Early today troops were brought from the Willows camp and stationed along the business section of the city to prevent repetition of the anti-German rioting caused by fury over the sinking of the Lusitania.

Last night's outbreak began in Yates street, near the corner of Blanshard street. In the crowd there were a few soldiers of duty.

The crowd stoned the Victoria-Phoenix Brewing company's plant. About 100 rioters got in through a gate and others broke down a fence at the side and carried away a quantity of beer in casks and bottles.

The crowd looting of the night took place at the Schaefer & Glan tailoring store at the corner of First street. The crowd smashed every pane of glass in the shop. Belts of cloth were borne away under the eyes of the police.

Women were seen holding sacks for their husbands to stuff into, and groceries and provisions were taken away in some instances in motor cars and wagons. The value of the property carried off is estimated at $35,000.

AMEND 'DRY' BILL TO GIVE BRITAIN LIQUOR CONTROL

Goes to Second Reading in the Commons; Churchill Says Lusitania Was Warned.

LONDON, May 10.—The house of commons this evening passed the second reading of Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George's bill to amend the defense of the realm act.

The bill originally was designed to place a heavy surtax on wine, spirits and beer, but under pressure from the Irish party its provisions were amended to giving the government control of the sale of liquor in areas where munitions of war are being made.

Under the bill a central committee will be set up for Scotland and England. It will act on the recommendations of local committees of employers and workmen in the districts affected.

Mr. Lloyd-George has promised to appoint a committee to inquire into the charges of drunkenness among workmen, and all parties, including the Laborites, have expressed their satisfaction with the bill.

The government will absolutely control the sale of liquor in selected districts, including that dispensed in clubs and grocery stores.

A commission under the chairmanship of Lord Dundas will deal with the question of compensation to the liquor dealers for their losses.

No Convoys for Liners.

It was admitted in the house of commons today by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, that Great Britain is unable to provide destroyer escorts for mail and passenger ships and a repetition of the Lusitania disaster is possible.

He said that captains of the big liners would be advised of any information the admiralty had regarding the proximity of German submarines.

Capt. Turner, he said, had been warned of impending danger and had acknowledged receipt of messages giving him directions for the course he was to take, but until the board of trade had held its inquiry to determine the circumstances attending the loss of the Lusitania, he must refuse to go into details.

Asked if the German submarine which sank the Lusitania was of a larger type than anything known prior to April 14, Mr. Churchill replied: "I have no knowledge of the size or number of this submarine."

Questioned regarding a letter sent to the admiralty ten days ago giving information concerning the supposed type of this submarine, Mr. Churchill said the information contained in this communication was wholly untrue and that the facts which had given rise to the supposition were known to the admiralty.

Called Foul Murder.

"Our enemies have reached a degree of infamy, culminating in the destruction of the Lusitania, which is simply hopeless to attempt to describe," said Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition in the house.

Mr. Law's remarks were delivered on the occasion of the presentation of a medal to Capt. Bell of the British steamship Thorold, which rammed a German submarine off Beachy Head in February.

"This is not an act of warfare," Mr. Bonar Law continued. "It is simply murder, most foul, most brutal."

Saying that up to the present no effective protest had been made by any neutral country:

"What will happen now?" he asked. "The great, proud nation of the United States is the neutral country most closely affected by this latest outrage. The simple fact is that citizens of that great country have been barbarously murdered."

"It is not for me to say what their action ought to be, but I feel sure the United States will be guided not merely by the monetary interests of the country but by feelings as to what is due to a great nation among other nations of the world."

ST. LOUIS HEIRESS ELOPES WITH A DIVORCED PIANIST.

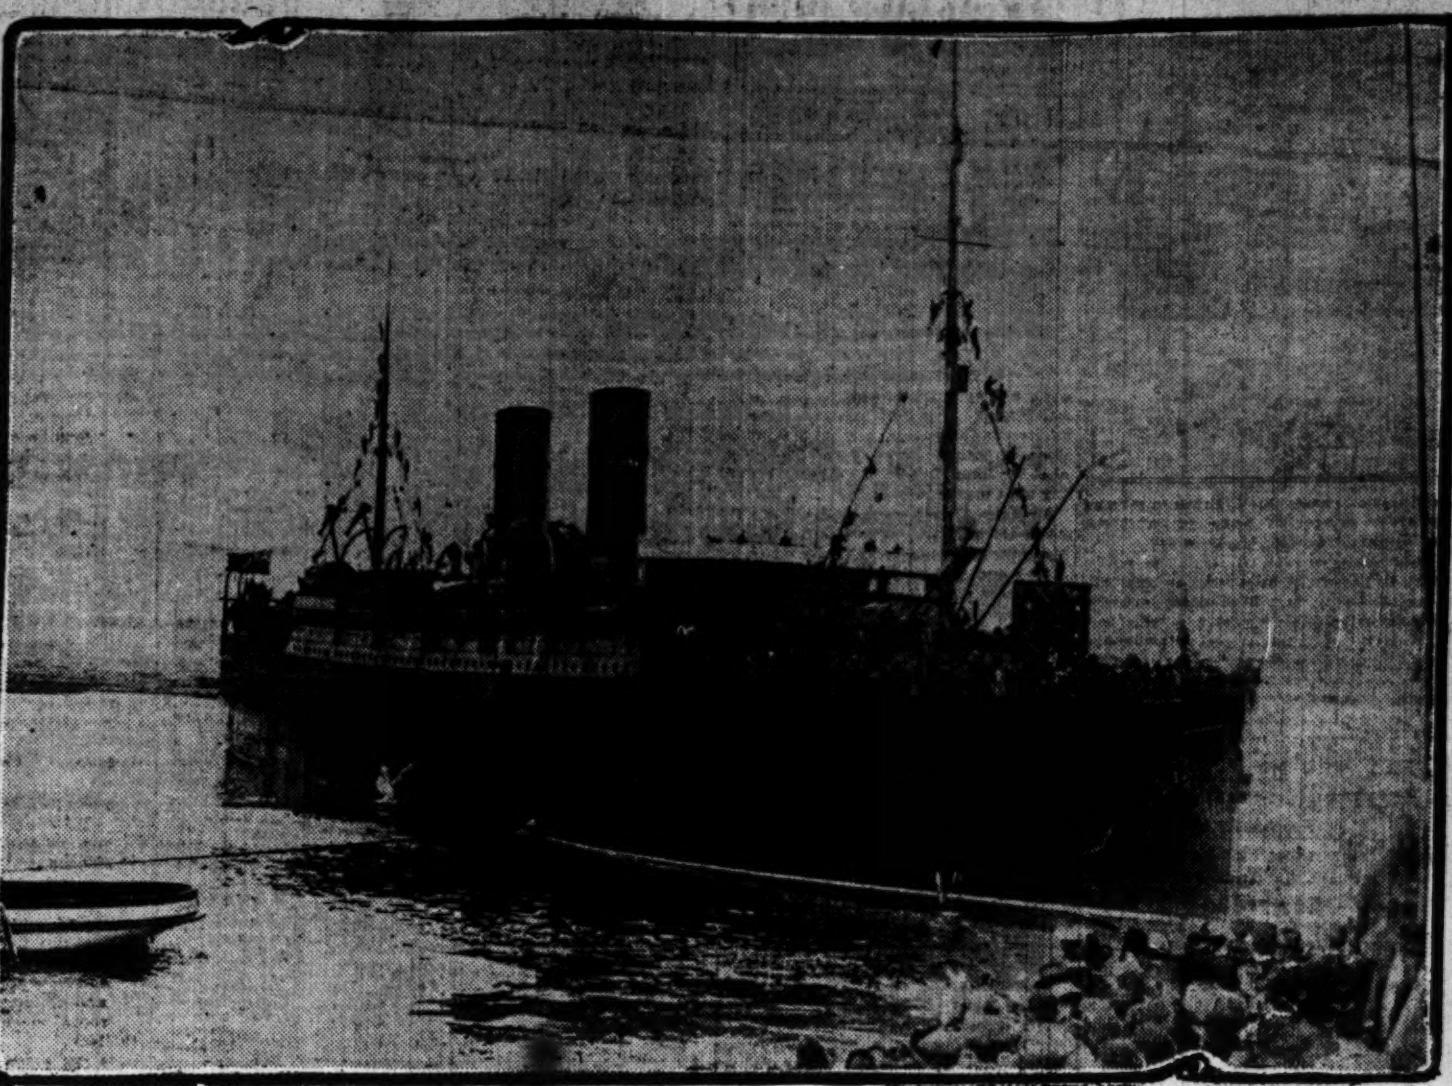

Daughter of H. E. Faulk, Manufacturer, and Gene Rodemich, Formerly with Elsie Janis, Wed.

St. Louis, Mo., May 10.—[Special.]—Gene Rodemich, pianist, accompanist of Elsie Janis on her last English tour, eloped to Clayton, Mo., today with Henrietta Faulk, the 19-year-old daughter of Henry E. Faulk, millionaire manufacturer.

The elopement was the culmination of many months' effort on the part of Miss Faulk's parents to prevent the marriage. Once the girl was taken to California, and some time ago, when the first showed affection for Rodemich, she was sent abroad.

Rodemich was divorced from his first wife, who obtained alimony. They have one child. Immediately after obtaining a divorce the girl went to a minister's home and was married. Then they motored to St. Louis.

Great Canadian Transport for Which German Submarines Are Lying in Ambush to Torpedo.

Canadian troops are being rushed to Europe to fill the fearful gaps made in the ranks of the dominion's contingent at Ypres. The picture shows the departure from Montreal May 6 of the new Canadian Pacific liner, the Metagama, loaded with 3,000 troops.

This is the largest vessel sailing from Canadian ports and it was commandeered by the government when it arrived at Montreal on its maiden voyage. The ship will arrive in England tomorrow or Thursday. Its destination has been carefully guarded, and it is doubtful if, after the fate of the Lusitania, that any chance will be taken in trying to make an English port. It is expected that instead of going to a training camp in England these troops will be landed directly in France.

of a nation. Failure to do so would be an act of self-debasement too ignominious to consider for a moment.

"There are extremists of endurance that are revolting to our better natures. The situation by which we are confronted is not chiefly one of legality—it is a question of the future of civilization."

"Remember the Maine"

Spirit Is Called For.

Nashville, Tenn., May 10.—[Special.]—Amid scenes of excitement, the house of representatives this afternoon adopted a resolution of Representative Clyde Shreve, of Tennessee, to call for the spirit of the Maine.

The preamble reads: "Whereas, The people of the state of Tennessee, and the whole nation have been shocked beyond all manner of expression by the dastardly deed of Germany in murdering the citizens of the United States, defenseless men, women, and children, aboard an unarmed merchant ship, an act so cruel and cowardly that the premeditated murderer who kills from ambush stands out in comparison like an honored hero."

"Whereas, The God-fearing and peace loving nation that 'remembered the Maine' will not forget the Lusitania, but with patience and fortitude will calmly meet and do its full duty in the face of such hideous and diabolical piracy."

A milder resolution was put through the senate also adopted by the house. The upper branch will act tomorrow on the Shreve resolution.

Firm Note Sounded

In Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 10.—A joint resolution was introduced in the state senate tonight intended to convey the support of the Pennsylvania legislature to President Wilson. "In any measure he may take to uphold our national honor, dignity, and security," and that the legislature recommend immediate measures to put the military and naval defense in the highest state of efficiency, "knowing as we do that the declared purpose of the American government in this matter is to serve the best interests of mankind, not only for the present, but for all time."

A similar resolution denouncing the sinking of the Lusitania and calling on the president to take action to obtain an apology, reparation, and a guarantee against like occurrences in the future was introduced in the house tonight. No action was taken on either resolution.

"Hang Together," says

President of Princeton.

St. Louis, Mo., May 10.—John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton university, in an address before the city club here today said:

"Whatever I intended to talk about, I can see that there is only one subject foremost in all of our minds. This is the great problem for our country due to the vast war. What does the immediate future hold in store for America? I believe we have but one feeling and that is that God forbid we be brought into war at this time or at any other time."

He said that no matter whether this nation is about to have war or peace, the great need is that every strong man stand by his duty in business or professional life.

"Besides standing at our post," he continued, "we must all hang together, every single man, as Americans."

"At this time we must not think of whether we are of English, Irish, German, or French descent, but remember always we are Americans. Whatever the emergency that we confront us, let us be true to the traditions of Washington, Hamilton, Jefferson, and Lincoln, as well as to the traditions of the incumbent of the White House—Woodrow Wilson."

Hold President Wilson

Is Too Conservative.

New York, May 10.—[Special.]—Methodist ministers of New York at their meeting today laid on the table by a decisive vote a resolution commending President Wilson for caution in dealing with the present war situation.

The resolution was presented by the Rev. A. F. Campbell of the Nostrand avenue church, Brooklyn. It mentioned the sinking of an American ship and the loss of American lives, but did not name the Lusitania.

"A motion to lay it on the table, offered from two parts of the hall at once, was adopted so quickly and so emphatically that the ministers themselves seemed surprised."

Discussion by ministers before and after the meeting showed that a considerable number of ministers felt that President Wilson was too conservative. The ministers appeared to be more warlike than the president.

Cardinal Gibbons

Pleads for Prudence.

Baltimore, Md., May 10.—Prudence and calmness of action and speech is the course that Cardinal Gibbons would recommend to the American people in the present crisis.

"I feel the greatest sorrow and horror for this terrible tragedy," said the cardinal tonight. "So many women and children and noncombatants losing their lives is certainly a tragedy. The American people must be calm and prudent."

"It is best to leave the destinies of the nation in the hands of the president and the government. Popular sentiment is not a standard to be followed too hastily. The calm deliberation of our national executive will lead to the best solution of this question."

"Rely on Wilson"

Alton B. Parker.

New York, May 10.—Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for the presidency in 1904, issued this statement today:

"The attempt to persuade the public what action the Lusitania disaster requires the president to take is unfair to him and may work great injury to us. He alone must bear the heavy responsibility of decision—and greater there cannot be."

No one knows it better than he. For both personal and patriotic reasons his best effort will be put forth. We all know this to be true. Why then do we not let him alone? Why not give him time? There is certainly no need for hurry. On the contrary, there is every reason for making haste slowly."

"Have we forgotten the Maine? Can we not see President McKinley, standing with his back to the wall in the face of the hostile army of Germany? He was a result of passion—and in the meantime the sentiment of the world had come to our side."

Texas Senate Pledges

Support to President.

Austin, Tex., May 10.—Six resolutions today were introduced in the Texas legislature on the Lusitania case. The senate, in which five resolutions were introduced, including that for diplomatic severance, compromised by adopting a resolution pledging support to President Wilson.

In any course he sees fit to take to uphold the dignity and honor of the United States."

"Expel Dr. Dernburg"

Washington Times.

Washington, D. C., May 10.—[Special.]—The Washington Times, in its leading editorial tonight demands the expulsion of Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, formerly German colonial secretary. The editorial says:

"This man Dernburg, who flaunts in any and every city of the United States the crimes of those he represents in Berlin, needs nothing so much for the sake of common decency, not to speak of international obligation, as to be put out of the country."

GERMAN FLIERS DROP BOMBS ON ENGLISH TOWNS

Air Craft Visit Three Places During Foggy Night; Two Deaths Reported.

LONDON, May 10.—Two German air craft are reported to have dropped bombs on Westcliff-on-Sea, South End, and Leigh early this morning. Two fatalities have been reported.

Warning of the approach of hostile air craft was given South End at 2:32 o'clock this morning. Several machines took part in the raid, but whether they were Zeppelins or aeroplanes the residents were unable to state, as the weather was cloudy.

Sixty bombs were dropped at South End, but most of them fell on the beach or in other places where they exploded harmlessly.

A British aeroplane went in pursuit and drove the hostile aircraft out to sea. It is reported that several shops were burned at Leigh, a town near South End. Four aircraft are said to have dropped forty or fifty bombs there.

A report was received from Romford that a Zeppelin had been seen in that neighborhood, apparently in difficulties, but whether in consequence of an unfavorable wind or of having been hit was unknown.

Helwig of 1400 Larabee street. Schofield was thrown from the wagon and bruised. The horse was so badly hurt that it was shot. The automobile was damaged.

CHIEF DIVORCES SLEUTH BUREAU FROM POLITICS

Healey Tells Central Detectives Merit Alone Will Count in Their Work.

A decree of divorce between the detective bureau and politics was issued last night by Chief of Police Healey in the presence of 100 detectives assigned to the bureau and Capt. P. D. O'Brien, its newly appointed head. The chief praised O'Brien and paid a high tribute to the memory of late Inspector John Shea. He emphasized the fact that merit alone will win rewards for the men under him and that political transfers are a thing of the past.

Warns the "Dead Wood." After the chief had finished, Capt. O'Brien addressed the men and issued a warning against the "dead wood" of the bureau. He let it be understood that beginning this morning there will be no more loafing.

"The police department has a bad reputation and the public says it is rotten," said the chief. "This is not the truth. Because a few of the men are bad the public takes this for the whole department. I want every one of you to do his duty. If charges are forwarded to me I will not investigate but will turn them over to the civil service commission."

O'Brien a Democrat. "Capt. O'Brien is one of the most radical Democrats in the city. I picked him not because of his politics but because I believe he is one of the best policemen in the country. I want this bureau to have the same reputation it had under Inspector Shea, one of the most fearless and best policemen in the world."

"I know for a fact that men leave here in the morning and nothing is heard from them all day. Some of them are not doing police duty and sooner or later their names will be learned and then there will be trouble. I have been swamped with politicians and business men interfering for men transferred under my recent order, but under no circumstances will any be transferred back. Your work and your work alone will count."

ARMOUR MAN MUST TESTIFY. Supreme Court Holds Car Line Officer Must Answer Questions of Commerce Body.

Washington, D. C., May 10.—The Supreme court of the United States today decided that Frank V. Ellis, vice president of the Armour Car Line company, must answer questions of the interstate commerce commission. In the district court of Illinois Mr. Ellis declined on the ground that his company was not a common carrier, and therefore did not come under the jurisdiction of the commission. The Supreme court found that those questions which would tend to show whether or not the Armour Packing company was receiving discrimination from railroads through its relations with the Armour Car Line company, which leases refrigerator cars to railroads, must be answered.

Discharged from Writ, Kills Self. A statement from his wife is believed to have caused Ernest Pettmann, 2629 Cassette street, to end his life yesterday. A bottle which contained carbolic acid was found beside the body, according to the police, who took the body to the morgue, where it was found.

VOTES TO SUE ON SCHOOL VALUES

Education Committee Decides to Test Appraisal in Courts.

TAKES UP 1915 BUDGET.

The finance committee of the board of education yesterday voted to recommend a court fight against the appraisal of State, Madison, and Dearborn street school property by E. W. Strauss, Jesse M. Hoffman, and Bertram M. Winston. The matter had been referred to the finance committee to learn if it believed the fight could be financed. Its decision is that the board can get along for the period of litigation without the $307,000 yearly which the land in question nets the board. The recommendation is expected to pass the board almost unanimously at its meeting tomorrow.

Take Up 1915 Budget. The committee took up the 1915 budget with the additional figures which had been prepared by the auditor. The action on the appraisal, if approved, will increase the prospective deficit to approximately $1,075,000. The estimates as turned over to the committee showed a deficit facing the board of $1,235,528. This does not include the estimated cost of the legal department, which will probably add about $50,000 more.

Estimates of the Auditor. The auditor's figures show that a little over $1,000,000 more will be spent in 1915 than in 1914 if the estimates are accepted. The comparative totals are as follows:

	1914	1915
Administration	$ 665,087	$ 588,083
Instruction	10,578,881	10,178,885
Operation	1,900,423	1,908,264

Totals. $12,444,391 $12,675,232. This means that the revenue this year is approximately $230,841 less than last year, not including the $300,000 in rents which a court fight on the appraisal would tie up. The committee postponed budget action until Thursday.

At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Olympic theater it is said an attempt will be made to show there is no deficit, and that the board is assuming that there is one for some ulterior purpose.

SCULLY REFUSES HOYNE POSSESSION OF BALLOTS.

Assistant Prosecutor Berger Names Republican and Democrat in Fraud Charges.

County Judge Scully yesterday denied the request of State's Attorney Hoyne that he turn over to the grand jury for scrutiny.

The judge said that the appellate court had ruled in one case that this should not be done and he would follow that ruling. This forced Assistant State's Attorney Berger to show his hand. He said evidence in the hands of the grand jury showed that John Murphy, a Republican precinct committeeman, and Joseph Kenefick, a Democratic committeeman, were the only ones in the Fifth precinct polling place at 3739 South Halsted street when the votes were counted, and that both had obtained positions with the sanitary district through the recommendation of Charles Martin, the Democratic candidate for alderman.

T. J. Kerney and Edward Craig, Republican watchers, have informed the grand jury that they were thrown out during the counting of the ballots. Mr. Berger intimated that he would go at once to the Supreme court with a mandamus seeking to compel Judge Scully to turn over the ballots.

WOMEN WATCH LOEB BODY UNDO PREVIOUS WORK

Committee Meeting Crowded with Teachers with "Their Hats Off."

There were a great many women, mostly school teachers, at the meeting of the Loeb school board investigating committee last night. They took their hats off as they do in a theater and standing room was filled. Mrs. George Bass and Miss Margaret Haley, with others of their organizations, gathered around one side of the board table. Ald. Robert M. Buck, chairman of the council's school board investigating committee, with Charles Hart, assistant corporation counsel, and representative of Mayor Thompson, watched from the other side. The chief work of the committee was undoing action taken previously. Summer high schools, eliminated at the last meeting, were replaced on request of a delegation of high school principals, who said that the greater part of the expense is covered by tuition.

Clerk Resolution Reconsidered. The resolution eliminating clerks from schools having a membership of less than 1,800 was reconsidered, and a substitute adopted giving clerks to high schools with a membership of over 500, to elementary schools of more than 2,000, and a clerk for half of every day to schools having a membership of 1,400 or more.

Vacation Schools for Backward. It was decided to close all vacation elementary schools except six for retarded pupils. The normal summer school also will be closed. A recommendation by Mrs. Ella Flagg Young that sick teachers be paid only the difference between their salary and that paid the substitute was approved.

The Chicago Teachers' Federation, at a meeting in the Masonic temple, decided to fight in the courts any cut in salaries of teachers before June 30, when the annual contracts of the teachers expire. The recommendation for a cut will go to the board next Wednesday, according to the present plans of the Loeb committee.

Germans, Austrians, and Turks Up to Age of 60 Wiped Off Rolls—Liverpool Gets in Line.

LONDON, May 10.—The authorities of the Baltic exchange and of the Mark Lane wheat market have suspended until further notice all Germans, Austrians, and Turks up to the age of 60, with the exception of those having sons at the front in the British ranks.

Between 200 and 300 British members of the stock exchange have mobilized to prevent, forcibly if necessary, the entry of any Germans who might be brave enough to attempt to make their way into the house in disregard of the warning issued by the stock exchange committee advising them to remain away.

RUTH SOPER ON WITNESS STAND

First to Testify in Mann Act Trial of Pastor Darnell.

PROSECUTION'S PLANS.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 10.—The Rev. James Morrison Darnell, former pastor of a Kenosha, Wis., church, indicted on a charge of having violated the Mann white slave act in transporting Ruth Soper from Owatonna, Minn., to Chicago and then to Kenosha, pleaded not guilty when his trial began today in the federal court.

Ruth Soper, who was the first witness, was on the stand a few minutes before court adjourned, gave her name as Ruth Soper Darnell; said she was the wife of James Morrison Darnell, and was married to him at Hammond, Ind. She accompanied him to Kenosha of her own free will, she said.

Outline of Prosecution. Guy D. Goff, United States district attorney, in addressing the jury, said that the government would attempt to show that while Darnell was living in Kenosha, Wis., with Miss Ruth Soper, whom he introduced as his wife, in January last, he was at that time the husband of Doris Vaughn of Chicago.

Government witnesses, it is expected, will testify that Darnell told conflicting stories relating to Ruth Soper, one to the effect that he was not married to her, never intended to marry her, and also that he is alleged to have said he went to Hammond, obtained a marriage license, and was wedded to the Soper girl.

Calls Certificate Fake. The government claims to have another witness who will testify that Darnell transacted business under the name of David C. Martin in Chicago and that a public stenographer in a hotel was employed by him to execute what purported to be a marriage certificate between Darnell and Ruth Soper.

The government promises to show that the defendant accompanied by Miss Madge Vaughn, posing as Ruth Soper, went to Crown Point, Ind., early in January last, and sought a marriage license for himself and Ruth Soper. Madge Vaughn is a sister of Doris Vaughn, whom Darnell is said to have married.

BRIDEGROOM SUE BY GIRL. Former Wooer to Be Married Today Defendant in $10,000 Action for Balm.

Suit for $10,000 damages against Frank Novak of 4324 West Walton street for breach of promise was filed in the Circuit court yesterday by Attorney Irwin R. Hazen in behalf of Miss Julia Price. Only the promise was filed.

"This is simply a breach of promise case," Attorney Hazen said. "Novak and Miss Price became engaged to be married and Novak went back on his promise."

The lawyer said he understood Novak is to be married today to Miss Josephine Holnak of 4823 Thomas street. He refused to disclose the address of Miss Price. He said she is "broken up over the matter."

FIX M'ENROE DEATH CAUSE.

Coroner's Jurors Hold Public Accountant Died from Fall in Hotel.

A coroner's jury decided yesterday that P. J. McEnroe, head of the public accounting firm of P. J. McEnroe & Co., died of a skull fracture as a result of a fall in the barroom of the Morrison hotel early Sunday morning.

WILSON ASSASSINATION CANARD STIRS UP CANBY.

Board of Trade Head Warns Brokers After False Report Comes Supposedly Over Wires.

Rumors circulated yesterday on the board of trade to the effect that President Wilson had been assassinated, with a resulting wide fluctuation in prices, caused President C. H. Canby of the board to issue a statement prohibiting members from disseminating false rumors. It was said the rumors came over the wires from New York.

A member of the board dropped into the saloon of Robert T. Fabbrini at 306 West Van Buren street and imparted the news. The saloonkeeper hung a sign in his window which read: "It is rumored that President Wilson was assassinated." Officers of the board discovered the sign and took Fabbrini to headquarters. He explained he thought the message was authentic as long as it had been given by a board of trade man and he was ruled out.

President Canby's statement follows: "Officers of the Chicago board of trade will hold to strict accountability. Any member found guilty of originating or disseminating false rumors. All those operating under such a banner are hereby notified that they will be held responsible for any false news circulated by their aid or assistance over said wires."

Some members of the board expressed the view that the board had been forced to make a desperate move to save themselves and spread the rumors. Cotton prices were the hardest hit. July cotton fell off 17 points, October 20, and December 22 points.

Loose Cash in Alfiey Holdup. Albert Galla of the West Fifty-third street was passing an alley in Fifty-third street, near Halsted street, last night, when he was accosted by two armed men, who robbed him of $3.50 and a gold watch and chain valued at $25.

LAUGH ON ST. LOUIS, NEARLY: WHERE'S STJOHN'S CIVIC PRIDE

Panhandler in Need of Bath from Mount City Shows Judge Until Unwashed Natives Come Along.

For a few minutes yesterday Chicago had the laugh on St. Louis, and then John Mussett, of 2723 Emerald avenue had to come along and spill the beans. Tony Badros started things when he appeared before Judge Caverly along with twenty-five other panhandlers picked up in West Madison street. That is, Tony appeared disguised behind a blanket of soap and grime. He admitted an antipathy to soap and asserted water, even as a beverage, was poor stuff.

"I just blew in from St. Louis," he said. "Well, you can't mix with our boys without first taking a bath—45," said the court. It was only a few minutes later that Mrs. Annie Mussett, faced her husband in the Court of Domestic Relations. "I couldn't stand to live with him any longer," she said. "He has not taken a bath for seven months."

"Go home and bathe daily and if you miss one day between now and June 15 she holds out, will be your bathhouse," was the court's warning.

(Trade Mark Registered)FRANK MUST DIE;
RESENTENCED;
DATE IS JUNE 22Altona Man, in Statement to Court, Says Time Will Prove He Is Innocent.Altona, Ga., May 10.—Leo M. Frank was hanged on Tuesday, June 22, unless he receives a pardon or commutation of sentence by the governor and state board of pardons. Judge Hill today resented the murder of Mary Phagan, the factory girl.Frank had prepared a written statement, but when Judge Hill asked him if he had anything to say, why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, he stood erect, with his head thrown back and, without once referring to the written text, declaimed it with the emphasis and gestures of an attorney making a plea before the court.When Frank had finished, the judge read briefly the legal judgments in the case and then ordered that the original sentence of death be executed and set the date. As the judge concluded, Mrs. Frank, who sat at a table with her husband's attorneys bowed her head upon her arms
on the table and sobbed quietly.Frank's Statement to Court.
The statement made by Frank was as follows:"Again I stand before you. Again I can only reiterate that I am innocent of the murder of Mary Phagan. I have absolutely no guilty knowledge of that tragic occurrence.""I am innocent of this charge and I trust that the record of the evidence conclusively proves this. No appellate tribunal has ever passed upon this evidence. The only judge who has ever heard it stated that he had the most serious doubts as to my guilt.""My execution will not avenge Mary Phagan's death. A life will have been taken for a life, but the real culprit will not have paid the penalty. I will suffer for another's crime."World Will Realize Innocence.
"My trust is in God, who knows that my protestations of innocence are the truth. At some future date the whole mortal world will realize it. It is the knowledge that God knows it now and that the world will know it some day that helps me, as I stand before your honor and as I face the future.""In the light of the whole truth I know and the Almighty knows that the morality of my position in this case is unavailable. This being so, my complete renunciation of this terrible charge lies in the future. When that day arrives I shall be vindicated and if I am alive I will be able to enjoy freedom and honor.
Therefore I want to live.""The full truth and all of the facts in this case when they come to light, as some day they will, will prove to the world that my assertion of innocence is the truth."No date has been set by the Georgia prison commission for a hearing on Frank's application for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment.
If the commission's recommendation should not reach Gov. Slaton in time for him to act before his term expires, June 21, it is considered probable he will grant Frank a reprieve, and that final action on the plea will be left for Gov. Elect Harris.Doubts He Can Act.
New York, May 10.—Gov. John M. Slaton of Georgia, who is now in this city, in a statement tonight regarding action which he might take in the appeal of attorney general for Leo M. Frank, said there was a possibility that he might not be called upon to act in the case. Gov. Slaton said that it probably would take some time for the board to review the evidence in Frank's case and that their recommendations might not be in hand before the transfer his successor to take office.Murdered Girl and

WOMEN INVADE
CAPITAL TODAY
TO URGE BILLSBig Delegation Will Support
Child Labor and Nine Hour
Day Measures.[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Springfield, Ill., May 10.—[Special.]— Women—clubwomen, women who are allied with the labor organizations, Springfield women who have been aroused by the pressure already exerted against the Illinois legislature, will invade the state capital tomorrow. Two big bills, the shortest child labor bill and McCormick women's work day bill, will be up for vote in the house.The latest news from the arriving lobby of women indicates that the women's lo-by will outrank in the legislature of 3,000 men and women which organized labor sent to Springfield two weeks ago in behalf of the pro-labor bills, including all of those which the women will back tomorrow.Hopes to Start Reforms.
The women's forces have been mobilizing quietly, but it is evident from the advance guard already here that tremendous pressure will be brought to bear on the legislature tomorrow.Shurtlett's child labor bill is intended to restrict the use of children in factories.
It has been amended in committee so as to take care of certain conditions. "The main chance remains and the effort will be made by the friends of the chief proposition to have the bill passed, even though it be a starter leading to a subsequent perfection of the idea."McCormick's women's bill, as amended, provides for nine hours' work out of any twelve in any twenty-four, with a fifty-four hour maximum for the week. Even with this compromise the bill is being fought bitterly and may fail. The minimum wage bill now pending in the senate is likely to fail.The senate was not in session today.
Urges Live Stock Indemnity.
Complaints from stock raisers over the delay in enacting the million dollar live stock indemnity appropriation measure today caused Gov. Dume to send a special message to the assembly asking that immediate action be taken.The bill, paying the state's one-half share for live stock slaughtered in the eradication of the foot and mouth disease, has been passed by both houses.
However, as passed by the senate it contained provisions for the payment of two farmers not provided for in the bill as passed by the house. The house has refused to concur in the senate amendments and the measure has been hanging fire for more than two weeks. The federal government already has paid its share for the slaughtered animals.OBSOLETE LAWS

COURTS HANDICAPPED?

Washington, D. C., May 10.—Law in its relation to the conflict between labor and capital was taken up here today by the federal industrial commission.Comment and criticism directed against courts and statutes were voiced by Walter Clark, chief justice of the Supreme court of North Carolina, Edgar M. Cullen, retired chief justice of the New York state court of appeals, and Gilbert E. Roe, a New York lawyer.Justice Clark and Mr. Roe both criticized the extensive practice of the courts in handing back to the arbitral committee of experts age in deciding cases arising under circumstances of which the common law knew nothing.Common Law Is Obsolete.
"The common law was built up," said
Mr. Roe, "at a time when the laboring man was not recognized as possessing any rights. It is plainly wrong to apply principles then established to conditions today."Mr. Roe added that the courts were prone to safeguard with great zeal the rights guaranteed to property under the constitution, but that in every case they upheld the constitutionality of laws involving the personal guarantee of free speech, free press, and free assembly.Commission's Work a Cure.
"A condition has arisen," said Commissioner O'Connell, questioning Mr. Roe,
"where men who fail to secure justice in the courts have become outraged, dis-trusting the courts, and consequently dis-trusting the entire social organization."
What can we do to cure this situation?"One step toward a cure," the witness replied, "is the work this commission is now doing, giving every one an opportunity to express his opinion."U. S. ASKS COURT TO DISMISS for the government today filed motions in the District Supreme court asking the dismissal for lack of jurisdiction of the suit of the Riggs National bank against Secretary McAdoo, Controller Williams, and United States Treasurer Burke, who were charged in the bank's complaint with conspiring to wreck that institution.The motions marked the first step that the government has formally taken to sale in public places by girls of a Chicago publication entitled "Child Betterment and Social Welfare" is to be investigated by the local police following complaints by Detroit citizens. It is said some of the girls have been brought here from other states, and the information has been given to United States District Attorney Webster.Stevens Mason, local attorney, who has complained to the prosecutor, has received a letter from the Association of Commerce, Chicago, stating that information of the publication had been reserved by that body.The magazine is published from 60 West Washington street, Chicago. Walter H.

Wood is the manager."M. Black, who has been selling our magazine in Detroit, is merely an agent,
buying his books from us and marketing them on his own account," said Mr. Wood last night. "We do not have girls selling the magazine in Chicago;
and we do not authorize any such method of sale.""As for contributions, we print an announcement in each issue that we have no connection with any philanthropy and sell only as money except for subscriptions. Dr. G. Frank Lydston is editor of the magazine, and considers it simply to interest people in child welfare.""I am trying to find out what is back of this attack. It looks like an attempt to injure me personally."QUIGLEY HAS GOOD GAIN.

you learned that your friend was a staunch believer in Sanatogen, and that his doctor had recommended it for him,
too. You thought yours was an isolated case, perhaps—and instead you found yourself one of the thousands being directed to better digestion, strengthened nerves and reinvigorated energy by the upbuilding and tonic effects of Sanatogen.
But it is not a surprise to us. We know Sanatogen is most—and best—advertised by word of mouth. The use of Sanatogen is spread broadcast by the good it does. Its users are its friends—sincere, enthusiastic, grateful.But why should so many famous people—like John Burroughs, Gilbert Parker, Lady Somerset, Colonel Waterston, Rear Admiral Sigsbee, for instance—people whose very names instill confidence—be so willing to tell over their own "signature" of the good Sanatogen did them? Why should more than 21,000 physicians write, as they have written, so sincerely, often even enthusiastically of their belief in Sanatogen?But—if you knew you needed the help that San-atogen gives—why should you wait for a friend to recommend it to you?
Surely the overwhelming
testimony in behalf of San-atogen should convince you that it will help you.Sanatogen is sold by good druggists

Phillips Wins, Also Harrison Team.

BY PREP.

Englewood picked up ten runs in the third inning and defeated Hyde Park in the central division of the Chicago High School league, whose season opened yesterday, by a score of 13 to 3, at Hamilton park. The wildness of Pitchers Terhune and Nevin of Hyde Park helped the Englewood players chase around the bases in the big round score.

FANS LOOK FOR KAYO TONIGHT
IN KENOSHA GO

Slugging Match Expected in Bout Between Knockout
Brown and Murray.

BY RAY C. PEARSON.

It will be Greek vs. Portuguese in the ring of the Badger Athletic club at Kenosha tonight. Knockout Brown, the Spartan athlete who calls Chicago his home, will furnish the opposition for Fighting Billy Murray of San Francisco, who represents the Portuguese side of the argument. This pair will furnish a bit of milling worth seeing.

Whatever claim to pugilistic fame Brown and Murray have is due entirely to their rough, tough, and wild methods of battling. Neither is overburdened with cleverness and neither claims to be. The Greek likes nothing better than to stand toe to toe with an opponent and slug with both hands and in meeting Murray he will find a foe who would rather mill than win by any other, so unless the dope goes wrong there will be a swarming melee of the first water.

Fans Look for Kayo.

A lot of local fans who will make the trip to Kenosha tonight on the special train which will run over two tracks think that some one is going to clinch him on a wallop and take the ten count. That's likely, as both hit hard enough to score a knockout, and it's only a matter of connecting with the proper spot. The Greek was busy yesterday closing up his training work, and when finished he declared he felt in fine fettle and ready to meet any kind of game that Murray may start. Brown weighed 150 pounds, one pound over the required weight, and he figures it will be an easy matter to remove that before 3 o'clock, when they will step on the scales at Kenosha.

Watson to Battle Snyder.
The semi-windup of the card also promises some hot milling, with Red Watson, Murray's stablemate, opposing Mike Snyder, the local lightweight. They have agreed to make 137 pounds at 3 o'clock, which should bring both into the ring at their strongest. Snyder will find Watson a tough fellow to handle and will have to show a lot of cleverness to gain the popular verdict.

There's one heavyweight scrap on the card which will give the fans a chance to see Joe Bond, the boy touted by Jim Corbett, in action. Bond is to tackle Bill Shanks over the eight round route. While no announcement has been made as to who will act as referee, it is expected that George Duffy will be chosen to serve in that capacity.

Charley White Leaves Today.
Charley White will leave today for Fort Wayne, where tomorrow night he is to swap punches with Hal Stewart. It is to be a ten round mixup, and White had to see Joe Bond, the boy touted by Jim Corbett, in action. Bond is to tackle Bill Shanks over the eight round route.

World's Champion Freddie Welsh will be in Chicago tomorrow to start preparing for his ten round bout with Ad Wolcott, which should bring both into the ring at their strongest. Snyder will find Watson a tough fellow to handle and will have to show a lot of cleverness to gain the popular verdict.

Nolan Wins Amateur Bout.
Tom Nolan was the only decisive winner in the amateur bouts staged at the Pullman gymnasium last night. He was paired with William Krieger, whom he outwitted five rounds. Despite the handicap in weight Krieger made Nolan work his hardest to get the verdict. In the 108 pound class Max Gena and Hyman Margolis boxed a draw. Sindy Doty was too much for Ryan Miller in the 119 pound division. Paddy Ryan and Joe Farr, a pair of 125 pounders, went evenly for three rounds. Hughie Cuthbert and Sam Mardock at 135 drew in three sessions.

BADGER BOARD BARS BOXERS
Milwaukee, Wis., May 10.—[Special.]—Jimmy Murphy of Chicago, and Akron Red, and Young Sampson of La Crosse were each given a suspension of four months by the state athletic commission today. Murphy was charged with deliberately delaying a show at Kenosha. When he failed to appear to answer the charge his suspension followed. Akron Red was suspended for stalling in a bout at Sparta recently, while Young Sampson, who was in Akron Red's corner at the Sparta show, was charged with being disorderly and refusing to obey the referee.

CALLAHAN SHADES DUNDEE.
Channah, O., May 10.—[Special.]—Frankie Callahan, of Brooklyn, had a shade on Johnnie Dundee of New York in their ten round bout at Radland field tonight. Callahan went through cleaner punches. Dundee landed the larger number of punches, but they were delivered for the most part while he was off his balance and had little effect.

FUGILISTIC FIGHTERS.
Philadelphia, Pa., May 10.—[Special.]—Dutch Brandt of New York got the newspaper decision over Louisiana in his city at the Olympic A. A. tonight.

JOHN, MAY 10.—[Special.]—Joe Cox of Springfield, Mass., was given a suspension of three months by the state athletic commission today. Cox was charged with deliberately delaying a show at Kenosha. When he failed to appear to answer the charge his suspension followed.

JOHN, MAY 10.—[Special.]—Joe Cox of Springfield, Mass., was given a suspension of three months by the state athletic commission today. Cox was charged with deliberately delaying a show at Kenosha. When he failed to appear to answer the charge his suspension followed.

Notes of the Golfers.

ANDERSONS are plentiful at this season of the year, and the Whelan golf course has a surplus supply. 1911 Waterbury avenue that on Sunday he allowed his ball into the branches of a big oak and had to have his caddy climb and retrieve the sphere.

The Detroit Golf club, over which the western amateur championship was held in 1911, is increasing its course to thirty-six holes, being the first big club in the country to do this. Of 150 lots around the course, each selling at $5,000, only one remains unsold.

Professional Harry Collins of Bloomington reports that all the regular fees and greens will be in use on Saturday. Bloomington recently had another fire, this time the barn being burned. Most of the machinery was destroyed. By quick work Collins saved a few bags of fertilizer. A day or two later a heap of compost will be in the sort of thing keeps up the club will have to save its course with vitriol.

SOX OPEN SERIES HERE TODAY WITH GRIFFS AS FOES

Jim Scott Picked to Face Senators in First Game of Long Home Stay.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERY.
Contrary to custom, the White Sox didn't start their season early. It was an open date in the schedule, but they would rather have been combating some other team. Just to exhaust some of the surplus energy of his athletes, Manager Rowland put them through an early season of rudimentary training at Comiskey park, after which he announced that the boys were primed for the opening contest with the Washington team today.

There will be plenty of work for the next twenty-four days. Having lost the south siders to the Sox, exactly twenty-four games in that time. All but one will be championship affairs. Next Friday is the sportsman's day. Bumping aside, go Rowland has arranged to have the league tribe out to Dubuque, his home

Senators Are Not Hitting.
Clark Griffith and his ambitious Senators arrived yesterday morning from Detroit, where they took a trimming on Sunday. Although Griffith's men are trudging along in the second division at the present time, they feel confident they are in the wrong stall and soon will be up fighting for the top. The fault so far as been a lack of base hits, but the Old Fox thinks he has hitting strength but that his players haven't struck their stride.

In the last four games that Walter Johnson has pitched, his mates have been able to get only one run for him. Walter made that one run win one game, but guess he had to be couldn't make it win more than one.

The White Sox are basking in third place in the race with twenty-three of their 154 games played. They are up near the leaders and are looking good for a hit. Nearly every man on the team has been clouting the ball as it never has been clouted before by a Comiskey player, and the Sox are looking good for a good pitching, have made the Sox look like probable pennant contenders.

Scott on Blah Today.

Jim Scott, who hasn't had luck with him yet this season, has been the star pitcher against the Washington game today. Scott pitched a whale of a game over in Cleveland last Wednesday, but was beaten by a score of 1 to 6. Previous to that game he had pitched well for nearly two weeks with a spiked foot. There wasn't anything wrong with his pitching on the last occasion. He looked to be in base running by his mates, he would have gained a victory with ease.

Clark Griffith took advantage of the off day yesterday and did some baseball business. He met Mike Cantillon, boss of the Minneapolis club, and succeeded in selling a couple of players to the minor magnate. Henry Rodeau, an outfielder and Harry Hopper, pitcher, were the two. Both consented to the change of employers, the latter on the condition that he could pitch today's game for the Millers. They were transported to their new headquarters last night.

COUNCIL ACTION BOLSTERS CAUSE OF HOME RULERS

Unanimously Adopts Resolution Giving All Power to Alderman.

One argument used by members of the legislature in shying at the bill to give Chicago home rule over its public utilities was shattered yesterday.

Some of the opponents of the measure have excused themselves by explanations that the city council and Mayor Thompson were at odds concerning the method of control desired. This statement was shot to pieces by the council's unanimous adoption of the mayor's resolution in favor of placing full authority in the hands of the aldermen. To make the unanimity more emphatic the roll of the council was called on the adoption of the resolution and every alderman answered "aye."

OFF for Springfield.

Immediately after the session Corporation Counsel Folson and Assistant James G. Skinner started for Springfield carrying copies of the resolution. Possession of such an indication of the city's attitude revived their slightly fading hopes of success in their fight.

"It would be harmful in the extreme," read the resolution, "to withhold from the city council the power to deal with the public service corporations operating within the confines of the city and it would be taking from the people of the city their just rights accorded to them by the privilege of voting on the adoption of the proposed act."

Mayor Sends Argument.

The mayor transmitted with the resolution a lengthy argument in favor of home rule.

On this same subject Ald. James H. Lawley had a second resolution passed. It called on each alderman to write the members of the legislature from his district urging him to support the home rule plan.

Chief Healey's crime report showed a total of ninety-four robberies and twelve attempted robberies during the two week period ending May 6.

BEER AND WINE THEIR LOOT.
Saloonkeeper Reports Burglars Entered Basement and Carted Off Cases.

Phillip Gusefsky, a saloonkeeper of 1100 West Fifth street, reported to the police yesterday that burglars had stolen eight cases of beer and ten gallons of wine from the basement of his saloon.

G. O. P. TO FIGHT SCULLY'S PLAN

Leaders Will Ask Judge to Withdraw Primary Proposals.

PARTY FACTIONS UNITE

The Republican county committee yesterday decided to oppose the pending amendments to the state-wide primary law as proposed by County Judge Scully. A formal letter will be sent to all members of the legislature, protesting against the amendments proposed as to registration and requesting that the organization of Cook county be accorded a public hearing before anything is done.

Meanwhile former Gov. Deneen, David F. Mather, and Edward J. Brundage, representing the committee, will call on Judge Scully, probably today, and request him to withdraw his recommendations.

One Registration in Four Years.

The Scully proposal is that there be only one registration in four years, and that judges and clerks of election be made permanent officials. Most of the Thompson committeemen attended the meeting, and said they would do all in their power to aid the Republican ticket, notwithstanding their opposition to the state plan prior to the county convention. Four committeemen who left the Deneen camp and lined up with the mayor on this proposition are said to have been slated for good jobs at the city hall.

Committee to Meet.

A committee, on which are former Gov. Deneen, Edward J. Brundage, Joseph A. Painter, Charles Barrett, and Joseph Carolan, was named to meet with the Republican judicial candidates today and to map out the plan of campaign and to dispose of the assessment question. Now trouble faced both the Republican and Democratic committees when T. D. Hurley filed a supplemental petition with County Clerk Switzer, holding that the state candidates must elect whether they will run as Republicans and Democrats or as independents, in accordance with the petitions filed with the clerk.

CAR KILLS RUNNING BOY.

Five Year Old Child Crushed by Trolley When He Darts in Its Path.

While being chased by companions Stanley Knifewright, aged 5 years, of 1334 North Ashland avenue, ran in front of an Ashland avenue car near his home last night and was killed. He was crushed beneath the wheels. The car crew was held blameless by witnesses.

COUNCIL REBUKE FOR THOMPSON'S BOARD OF MERIT

Finance Body, Aroused by Efficiency Dismissals, Would Curb Powers.

Mayor Thompson's civil service commission was rebuked yesterday by the finance committee of the city council. By resolution the committee expressed its lack of confidence in the efficiency program of the merit board.

The committee devoted three hours to considering means of nullifying the effect of what Ald. C. E. Merriam termed a "staggering blow" at efficiency in the city service. He was referring to the action of the commission in discharging fourteen employees of the efficiency division and suspending J. Louis Jacobs, one of the city's experts on system and organization.

Would Curb Power.

The result was the passage of a resolution directing the preparation of an ordinance taking the control of the efficiency division out of the hands of the civil service commission entirely. It is proposed to create a board of estimate and apportionment, under whose direction the efficiency bureau would make investigations of city departments.

The only committee member to demur at the scheme was Ald. James Lawley, who said he believed Mr. Merriam wants to save some particular men who were laid off.

"I don't care about the particular men," replied Ald. Merriam, "but I hardly believe the commission knew what it was doing."

Coffin Explains Move.

Capt. Percy B. Coffin, president of the commission, told the committee the men were laid off in the interests of economy. He presented a copy of a letter he had written to the mayor, in which he charged that two of the efficiency examiners had been holding conferences with the former members of the commission. He intimated certain examination records in the files are wanted by outside agencies.

Earlier in the day Mayor Thompson suggested the efficiency division was illegal.

Held on Chicago Theft Charge.

Detective Sergeant Patrick Loftus left Chicago last night for Detroit to bring back August Sellman, wanted here on a charge of embezzling $1,100 made by Max Eitel, owner of the Blumhardt garden. Grave and North Main streets. According to Eitel, Sellman disappeared with the money two years ago while a cashier at the garden. Sellman was traced by letters he wrote to friends here.

SHOP IN CHICAGO
RADICALS' MECCA

They Come from All Parts

EACH DEFENDS OWN "ISM."

BY HENRY M. HYDE.

"I believe in the human intellect. I believe in demonstrating the value of my own individual type. I believe in demonstrating the value of me to the universe. I am in search of freedom and now at last I am free."

She is a thin, slender little woman. She sat straight up in a rocking chair, her delicate hands clasped and unclasped the lock of her small bag as she spoke. Her eyes were covered with thick blue glasses. She is blind.

A young man who looked like an Italian squeezed into the narrow doorway. In broken English he asked for a book which shows from the standpoint of Socialism, the fallacy of the single tax doctrine.

The Husband.

The blind woman called from her chair. "Howard," she said. Her husband, who was washing down the little shop window, came into the store at her call and turned to the long book shelves to find the desired volume. He is a man just on the sunny side of middle age, whose wavy fringe of gray hair is a trifle long and thin. Under his high, bald brow his bright eyes peer out through glasses. The expression of his face is mild and a trifle worried.

Once he was a Unitarian minister. Then for some years a worker in organized charity. Now he and his wife are active in the radical movement. Up in a tiny box of a room on North Clark street, just north of Chicago avenue, they are running "The Radical Book Shop," the sign hanging just below a large board announcing a hand laundry. In the other half of the narrow store room is a "cent lunch."

Mecca of Revolutionaries.

At the rear of the six foot wide book store is a small stove, with a couple of chairs and a bench about it. Around this stove in the course of a month gather all the radical reformers and mid eye young revolutionaries who live in or visit Chicago. They come representing a hundred different social causes, all the world. Socialists, single taxers, philosophic anarchists, syndicalists, international new thinkers, Industrial Workers of the World, bearers of the comic light, rationalists, Christian socialists, futurists—most of them young, all in earnest, each ready to defend his own "ism" and to show the fallacy of all the others.

It may startle the average citizen, whose ideas on these subjects are vague, to learn that the book store is in a room on its counters no less than forty-five radical weekly and daily newspapers, each devoted to advocating some revolutionary reform, and about twenty-five regular monthly magazines, all of them aimed in the same general direction.

Hundreds of Volumes.

On the book shelves are some hundreds of volumes, fairly representing the modern literature of social revolution, from Marx to Bernard Shaw and Tolstoy. A man in the uniform of a United States mail carrier came in to buy two copies of a nationalist tract.

"Yesterday I made a convert who is 65 years old," he said. "It isn't often you can make a man that old change his opinion on any subject. Most people stop thinking by the time they are 40."

Two fashionably dressed young women were the next customers. They were soft voiced and refined in appearance. They bought a book on "Sabotage," translated from the French.

Anarchist No More.

During the noon hour, while Mr. and Mrs. Deell were at their luncheon, the shop was left in charge of their two small daughters. And it may surprise the parents to learn that their eldest, a pretty child of 14, has recently deserted her inherited belief in philosophical anarchism.

"I used to be an anarchist," she said. "But I am not any longer. I changed that a few weeks ago. Somebody stole the rug we put in our front hall, so that things would look a little nicer. And lots and lots of times somebody steals our bottles of milk. Of course I know the theory is that they need the things more than we do. Perhaps they were hungry and did need the milk, but I don't see why they needed to take our rugs."

Emma Goldman a Caller.

To the radical book shop come the leaders of all the different "isms" when they visit Chicago. "Bill" Haywood of the I. W. W., Emma Goldman, Editor, single tax and socialist lecturer, the "intellectuals," who are so pathetically anxious to make the world over in their own way and to give everybody an equal share of happiness, money, work, love, and trouble.

Just now the radical shop is getting ready to celebrate the first anniversary of its establishment in Chicago. The celebration will take the shape of a "social and dance" given by the "friends and promoters of radical thought in Chicago." The proceeds, after the expenses are paid, will go towards putting the radical shop on its feet financially.

It seems to be admitted that the cause of revolutionary reform in Chicago—as represented by the "intellectuals," is not a tremendously profitable venture.

STREET CAR MEN
DEMAND RAISE

12,000 Ask Today for 33 Cents
Instead of 23 Cents for First Year Work.

A committee representing 12,000 street railway employees will submit a demand for increased wages to the employers today. Action taken last night by 400 members of the union, representing all the local, calls for an increase of several cents an hour.

The men will demand an increase for first year men from 23 cents an hour to 33 cents. After the first year all employees will receive 36 cents an hour. If the union is successful in getting what the members want.

Start at 33 Cents.

Under the present arrangement with the companies the employees start at 23 cents and obtain a gradual increase up to the fifth year of service, when they are paid 32 cents an hour.

In addition to the increased wage the state board of arbitration come in and the employees will ask the company to agree to a ten-hour day, the ten hours to be worked in twelve. A bill making the foregoing hours mandatory is pending in the state legislature.

The wage demands will be considered by the joint arbitration committee representing the employees and employers. If agreement is not reached, then a strike vote must be taken before the men stop work. It is said to be unlikely that a strike will result, however.

Aldermen Are Bribed.

Discouraged by what they call "stone wall" treatment by the members of the special committee of the council appointed to attempt a settlement of the building trades strike were almost ready yesterday to throw up their hands.

"I am beginning to doubt that further efforts on our part would be of any avail," said Chairman Carl T. Murray at the close of a conference that ran into the evening.

"We are seriously considering whether it wouldn't be better to step aside and let the state board of arbitration come in and the employees will ask the company to agree to a ten-hour day, the ten hours to be worked in twelve. A bill making the foregoing hours mandatory is pending in the state legislature."

"We'll determine tomorrow what course we shall pursue."

State Board Ready.

The state board of arbitration is ready to start an inquiry into the operations of the unions and contractors with a view to giving the public all the information possible about the strike.

The increased wages in some trades and the low wages in others, and, finally, the forces that are delaying the settlement of the strike of 10,000 carpenters.

"OLD MAN DOOLEY" GONE.

Pupils Miss His Daily Smile and Learn Mode From Balloon Owner Is Dead.

For years "Mike" Dooley, morning, noon, and late in the afternoon, was to be found in front of his school, 1448 South Dearborn street, across from St. Agatha's parochial school, exchanging greetings with the "kids." They all called him "Old Man Dooley."

Yesterday he was not there. He had died in the night. "Dooley is dead," the pupils whispered.

Dooley was well known in Democratic circles years ago. He conducted the school for more than twenty years, and at that time the police had never been called.

ADVENTURES OF MR. HICKS.
GOSSIP AT GRANT HOTEL.

Manager Gets Cold Bath in Roof Reservoir, So Story Goes, but He Denies It.

There is a big round water tank about seven feet high on top of the Grant hotel at Madison and Dearborn streets. The pipes leading in and out of the tank became clogged up yesterday. Patrick Hicks, the hotel manager, went up to investigate.

If the hotel gossip is to be believed; Mr. Hicks climbed heavily into the tank, which had gone dry. He pulled out the sticks that clogged up the pipes. Then came an onrush of cold lake water. Mr. Hicks attempted to beat a hasty retreat. But the side of the tank was high, and slippery, moreover, Mr. Hicks, being inclined to portliness, discovered that he could not shin a board fence as easily as in the days of his boyhood. When he finally reappeared on the roof it was with a high water mark on his trousers and an exceedingly pained expression on his usually jovial face.

Mr. Hicks last night modestly disclaimed the adventure.

"Do you suppose I would stand there with cold lake water running up about my legs?" he demanded. "Don't you believe a word of it."

DRUGGISTS AND DOCTOR
TAKEN IN DOPE CRUSADE.

Three Men Charged with Conspiracy to Violate Harrison Law by Supplying Drug Funds

William Wallace of 2809 South State street and W. H. Ambrecht of 1065 West Madison street, druggists, and Dr. Milton B. Titus, who has an office above Ambrecht's store, were arrested by federal officers yesterday in the government's crusade to rid Chicago of "dope" peddlers. They were charged with conspiracy to violate the Harrison law by supplying dope to drug funds.

Elsie Graham, an actress, and David Starr, alleged drug user, were discharged when arraigned in court, but were immediately taken into custody again and held as government witnesses against Dr. Arthur L. Hunt of 7 West Madison street. Dr. Hunt is being held at the Du Page county jail at Wheaton.

Miss Graham said she paid Dr. Hunt $50 to cure her of her drug habit. Wallace, according to Assistant District Attorney Benjamin P. Epstein, sold cocaine to Dr. Hunt. Further investigation of the dope traffic is being conducted by Mr. Epstein and Revenue Agent Dan Chapin.

HER TOE BRINGS
AUTO DISASTER

Girl Driving New Car Loaded with Children Runs
It Into Ditch.

It was something of an event out in Tinley Park, a few miles south of Chicago, when Fred Hick's new automobile arrived Sunday afternoon. Any automobile is an event in Tinley Park, but this one was particularly shiny and rakish and Hick, who is a butcher's helper, nearly burst with pride as he trundled carefully down Main street and hove to in front of the ice cream parlor.

A group of children piled out and greeted him hilariously.

"Give us a ride," they shouted. "Well, come on," said Hick good naturedly. "I'm going out after Margaret Hopkins, but you might as well come along. I'll just take you out there and back."

Gets the Girl All Right.

The drive to the Hopkins farm was negotiated successfully and Miss Hopkins joined Hick and his five restless, delighted passengers. Hick had never before driven a car, but he seemed easy—so easy that, on the way back, he turned the wheel over to Margaret.

Margaret also had never driven a machine, and the speed mania found her an easy victim. Hick showed her the accelerator and a little too found it and pressed eagerly.

Here's What Happened.

Then something happened. When it was over the new car lay bottom upward in a ditch and the situation, after several other motorists had done what they could, was this:

Radolph Detweiler, 18 years old; skull fractured; taken to St. Francis hospital, Blue Island; not expected to live.

Lorraine Funk, 7 years old; skull fractured, nose broken, teeth knocked out; condition critical.

Edna Brockman, 7 years old; cut and bruised.

Helon Holstein, 8 years old; cut and bruised.

Chester Eliz, 12 years old; thrown out of car and escaped injury.

Margaret Hopkins, 17 years old; spine injured and shoulders wrenched.

Fred Hick; right leg broken.

Her Clip Only 30 Miles.

Miss Hopkins admitted after the accident that the speedometer read thirty-two miles an hour when she tried to pass another machine in front. The car struck the one ahead, turned a complete somersault and crashed into the ditch.

All except the Detweiler boy were taken to their homes in Tinley Park.

TWO HELD FOR MURDER OF SLOMSKI AT HIS BANK.

Police Say Pair Taken as Suspects
Gave Alibis Which Have Not Gave Water.

Two men were booked at the detective bureau yesterday on charges of murder who are believed to be two of the five robbers who shot John J. Sloski in his bank at 2150 West Eighteenth street on May 4.

The prisoners gave their names as John Flom, 25 years old, of 1064 West Thirtieth street, and Sam Maybrick, 30 years old, of 620 Barber street.

They were arrested on Friday and at first refused to answer questions. Witnesses at the bank failed to identify them, but the police say their alibis on the day of the murder have not held up under subsequent investigation.

WALKS 26 MILES
IN 7 HOURS ON 74TH BIRTHDAY

John H. Nolan, Civil War Veteran, Tells Why He's Spry
as "19 Year Older."

ON A DIET OF VEGETABLES.

John H. Nolan is a Methuselahite. When he was a small boy his father was not the presidency of the United States, nor a resplendent military career; it was to live long. Therefore he conducted himself according to rules that he believes insure health and longevity.

Yesterday Mr. Nolan, who is general agent of the Travelers' Insurance company and lives at the Union League club, was 74 years old. In celebration of the anniversary he left the club doors at 8:30 o'clock and at 11:30 had walked the thirteen miles to Davis street in Evanston.

A cup of diluted milk in coffee, a chat with some friends he met on the street, and at 12 o'clock noon sharp he faced about toward the loop, which he reached at 4 o'clock.

Eats Vegetarian Meal.

At 6:30 he sat down in the Union League club dining room to a vegetarian meal. Throughout the repast passing club members halted and dropped their hands on his shoulder.

"Heard you were going it today."

A smile wreathed his crimson face as he answered:

"Brisk as a boy." If the United States declared war I could do better than their 19 year olders.

"I was born on May 10, 1841, in New Haven, Conn.," said Mr. Nolan. "I was the first of eleven children and went to work at 12 as a factory boy, and I've never been out of a job since. In 1862 I enlisted in a Connecticut Infantry regiment and remained in the army until the end of the war in 1865."

Walk and Keep Up with City.

"When I was a little boy in New Haven I used to walk through some of the halls at Yale college, and I resolved when I grew up and was married I'd send all my children to college. My three sons went there, but one died during his stay."

"All my life I have walked; walking is my great pleasure. The only way a man can keep track of the town is by walking. I don't merely go on the boulevards, but down Milwaukee avenue and through Humboldt park and Cicero and the black belt."

"I was about fifteen or eighteen years ago that I read a book called 'Intellectual Life,' by some English author. Later I met Horace Fletcher, and still later met Irving Fisher of Wall, who has since done such successful experiments with Fletcher's methods."

Quit Eating Meat.

"About a dozen years ago I quit eating meat because it's handled so dirtily, and because it is conveyed through it, and I stopped eating sea food because of the possibility of ptomaine poisoning, and I quit mushrooms because I was afraid of food poisoning."

Window Open All Night.

"All night long, summer and winter, my window is open all the time. When I rise I take gymnastic exercise for twenty-five minutes."

I never eat breakfast, but drink four cups of a concoction which is one part coffee and three parts milk, while I read my paper. I never eat any luncheon."

Mr. Nolan has lived at the Union League club for five years. His wife spends her time with her two married daughters and their grandchildren, and Mr. Nolan visits her frequently.

CHIEF HEALEY VISITS SCENE

Theories and Detectives Begin
Search for Negro Washwoman.

Chief of Police Healey took personal charge of the Coppersmith murder case yesterday. With First Deputy Schuetzler and Capt. Smith of Englewood he visited the scene of the murder at 7100 Iowa avenue and examined traces left by the slayer. Both Chief Healey and First Deputy Schuetzler admitted they had formed theories concerning the crime, but neither would reveal them.

The result of the examination of the finger prints showed the hope that the guilty person was among those arrested and held as suspects.

After Chief Healey's visit detectives began to search for a negro woman who frequently did washing for Mrs. Coppersmith.

More than 500 persons gathered at the home of Mrs. Julia Monahan, 7029 North Dearborn street, where the funeral services were held for Mrs. Coppersmith and her 2 year old son.

O'CONNELL WILL PAY IN $187,677

Former Treasurer to Get Receipt in Full for That Sum, County Interest.

The county commissioners yesterday voted to receive from former Treasurer William L. O'Connell $187,677 in interest on county funds and in return give him a receipt in full for all interest due. The action closed the long drawn out dispute between the board and the treasurer, in which it appeared for a time that Mr. O'Connell would keep the money himself, as his predecessors were accustomed to do.

The resolution was adopted over the strenuous protest of Commissioner Daniel Moriarty.

Insists O'Connell Keep Pledge.

"I insist that Mr. O'Connell should be made to keep his pledge to turn over all interest money," he said. "It is impossible to determine what sum is due the county on its funds unless an audit of the books is made. The county board has passed a resolution which compels the present county treasurer to keep a record of interest money."

Last year the previous board voted to receive the O'Connell interest "on account," but Mr. O'Connell did not turn the interest over to the county, holding that the eight votes which passed the resolution were not sufficient. Yesterday's order was passed by thirteen votes.

Turn Money Over This Week.

Mr. O'Connell said he would turn over the fund to the county some time this week.

Commissioner Frank Hagen moved to grant all county employees three weeks' vacation with pay, but action was deferred. Commissioner Scott said that extra help also ought to be included. When protest against the time proposed was made, Commissioner Carolan said that he would not grant the extra two months' vacation, and that if he had his way he would grant them but a three weeks' vacation also.

CHIROPODIST GETS BIG JOB.

Parts with $5 for Privilege of Doing Work for 1,384 "Owls."
Then Tells Police.

Mrs. Florence T. T. Powell, 1248 North Clark street, parted with $5 yesterday to a solicitor who gave him the name of "Arthur Lore, secretary of a nest of the Order of Owls," on the representation that she would be made official chiropodist of the order and that 1,384 members would be bound to pay her $30 a month whether they utilized her services or not.

After paying the money Mrs. Powell consulted the police. She is wondering when the income of $480 a month in return for the paltry $5 is to start.

She said that the solicitor was supplied with printed blanks and gave her a written "guarantee."

TRIES TO DIE IN MUD PUDDLE

Girl with Nothing to Live For Gives Police Hard Fight to
"Save Her."

"There's a girl trying to commit suicide at Thirty-second street and Kedzie avenue," came a message to Lavndale police station last night.

Policemen Stuch and Payton hurried to the scene and found a girl standing knee deep in a large mud puddle. They waded in and grabbed her arms. She fought and kicked and drenched them with the muddy water, but they finally dragged her out. She gave out her name as Emma Korten, 18 years old, of 6225 Twenty-second street, Morton Park.

"I haven't anything to live for," she said. "My mother died a year ago."

Names and Trade Marks You Should Know

Crests of nobility have counted for much in the old world. As a rule they have been founded in chivalry, patriotism, generosity, noble deeds, ability.

What these heraldic devices were to the old world, great commercial names and trade marks are to the new.

These established trade marks represent distinctive merit, definite achievements. It is a challenge to all the world, stamping the product which bears it as one of which the maker is proud.

The trade mark is a dangerous thing for the maker to exploit widely and continuously. It is a two edged sword; for if the product falls short of expectations it enables the public to discriminate against it just as easily as, if the product makes good, it enables the public to discriminate in favor of it. Therefore a trade mark which has stood the test of time and publicity is a guaranty of solid worth.

Don't accept nameless products on which no responsible manufacturer has cared to place his name or brand. Remember that an anonymous article of any kind may well arouse suspicion in these days of trade marks, advertising and standardized business.

These are names and trade marks that you should know for your own protection and profit. Study them. Know them. Then look for them when you make purchases. Refuse substitutes. Demand the genuine. You'll be well repaid.

The Gig—A New Carriage for Baby's Outing

For baby's comfort as well as for its fine appearance this gig merits consideration, as it has been constructed with these points in view.

Made with steel running gear, reed back and seat, excellent springs and large rubber tires.

The high color schemes in which these gigs are decorated (combinations of yellow and black, red and black, gray and white, and gray) make them most attractive.

—In brown, $3 and $3.50.

—In other colors, $4 and $5.

Seventh Floor, South Room.
